

1/30/2011

The Future of Urban Landscape Design

The Conservation Committee of The City Gardens Club of New York City cordially invites you to a forum on Thursday, January 13, 2011 at 9:15 - 11:30 a.m.

at the Junior League, 130 East 80th Street, with four excellent panelists:

Hanna Packer, Senior Designer, Town and Gardens, Ltd., is a frequent lecturer at the New York Botanical Garden. She is an award-winning designer and horticulturist with expertise in green roofs, green walls, and sustainable design.

Margie Ruddick, Landscape Designer of Queen's Plaza and the new waterfront at Stapleton on Staten Island. In 1996, she led a team to design the Living Water Park in Sichuan, China's first ecological park to clean polluted river water.

Matthew Urbanski, a principal of Michael Van Valkenburgh Associates, Inc. has worked on the Brooklyn Bridge Park and the Hudson Park & Boulevard. His previous projects include Union Square North, Segment 5 of Hudson River Park and Teardrop Park in Battery Park City.

Lee Weintraub, a Fellow of the American Society of Landscape Architects, former director of the Urban Landscape Architecture program at NYC's City College. He designed Tiffany Plaza, Longfellow Garden and the World Trade Center's waterfront. He is currently designing Via Verde, a innovative complex of terraced apartments in the Bronx.

Enclosed please find my check for $25.00 per person payable to The City Gardens Club of NYC. Mail to 755 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10021 by January 6th.

Name _____ Guest _____

Affiliation _____

Address _____